The Fund's worst performing sectors were Health Care, Consumer Discretionary, and Consumer Staples. The Fund's best performing individual positions were NVIDIA Corp, Shopify Inc, Alphabet Inc, Netflix Inc, and Microsoft Corp. The Fund's worst performers were UnitedHealth Group Inc, DoorDash Inc, Invesco QQQ Trust Series 1, Adobe Inc, and iShares MSCI Eurozone ETF.

Derivatives, which were used for the Fund's short positions and to leverage the long positions, detracted approximately 1.00% from the Fund's performance.

The RiverPark Long/Short Opportunity Fund seeks long-term capital appreciation while managing downside volatility by investing long in equity securities that the Fund's investment adviser believes have above-average growth prospects and selling short equity securities the Adviser believes are competitively disadvantaged. The Fund is an opportunistic long/short investment fund. The Fund's investment goal is to achieve above average rates of return with less volatility and less downside risk as compared to U.S. equity markets.

Householding

Rule 30e-1 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 permits funds to transmit only one copy of a proxy statement, annual report or semi-annual report to shareholders (who need not be related) with the same residential, commercial or electronic address, provided that the shareholders have consented in writing and the reports are addressed either to each shareholder individually or to the shareholders as a group. This process is known as “householding” and is designed to reduce the duplicate copies of materials that shareholders receive and to lower printing and mailing costs for funds. Once implemented, if you would like to discontinue householding for your accounts, please call toll-free at 888-564-4517 to request individual copies of these documents. Once the Fund receives notice to stop householding, we will begin sending individual copies 30 days after receiving your request.
